Book Release Date: September 20th, 2019

Blue Tiger, a new publisher of photo books, is pleased to release No Miracles Here, by Kavian Esmaeili, at the Independent Art Book Fair on September 20 and 21, 2019. The book documents Kavian and his friends and shares what they have found the courage to tell.

Kavian says the photographs are like life itself, recording the group as they first break away from the expectations placed on them by society and family, and then each other, so that they may build up trust and understanding to live life as they want, free from society's restrictions. In many ways the goal of this understanding is to allow unspoken acceptance and trust amongst friends, rather than keeping things unspoken out of fear.

Kavian (b. 1997) lives and works in Tehran.

The book features a cover design by Shahab Tondar.
